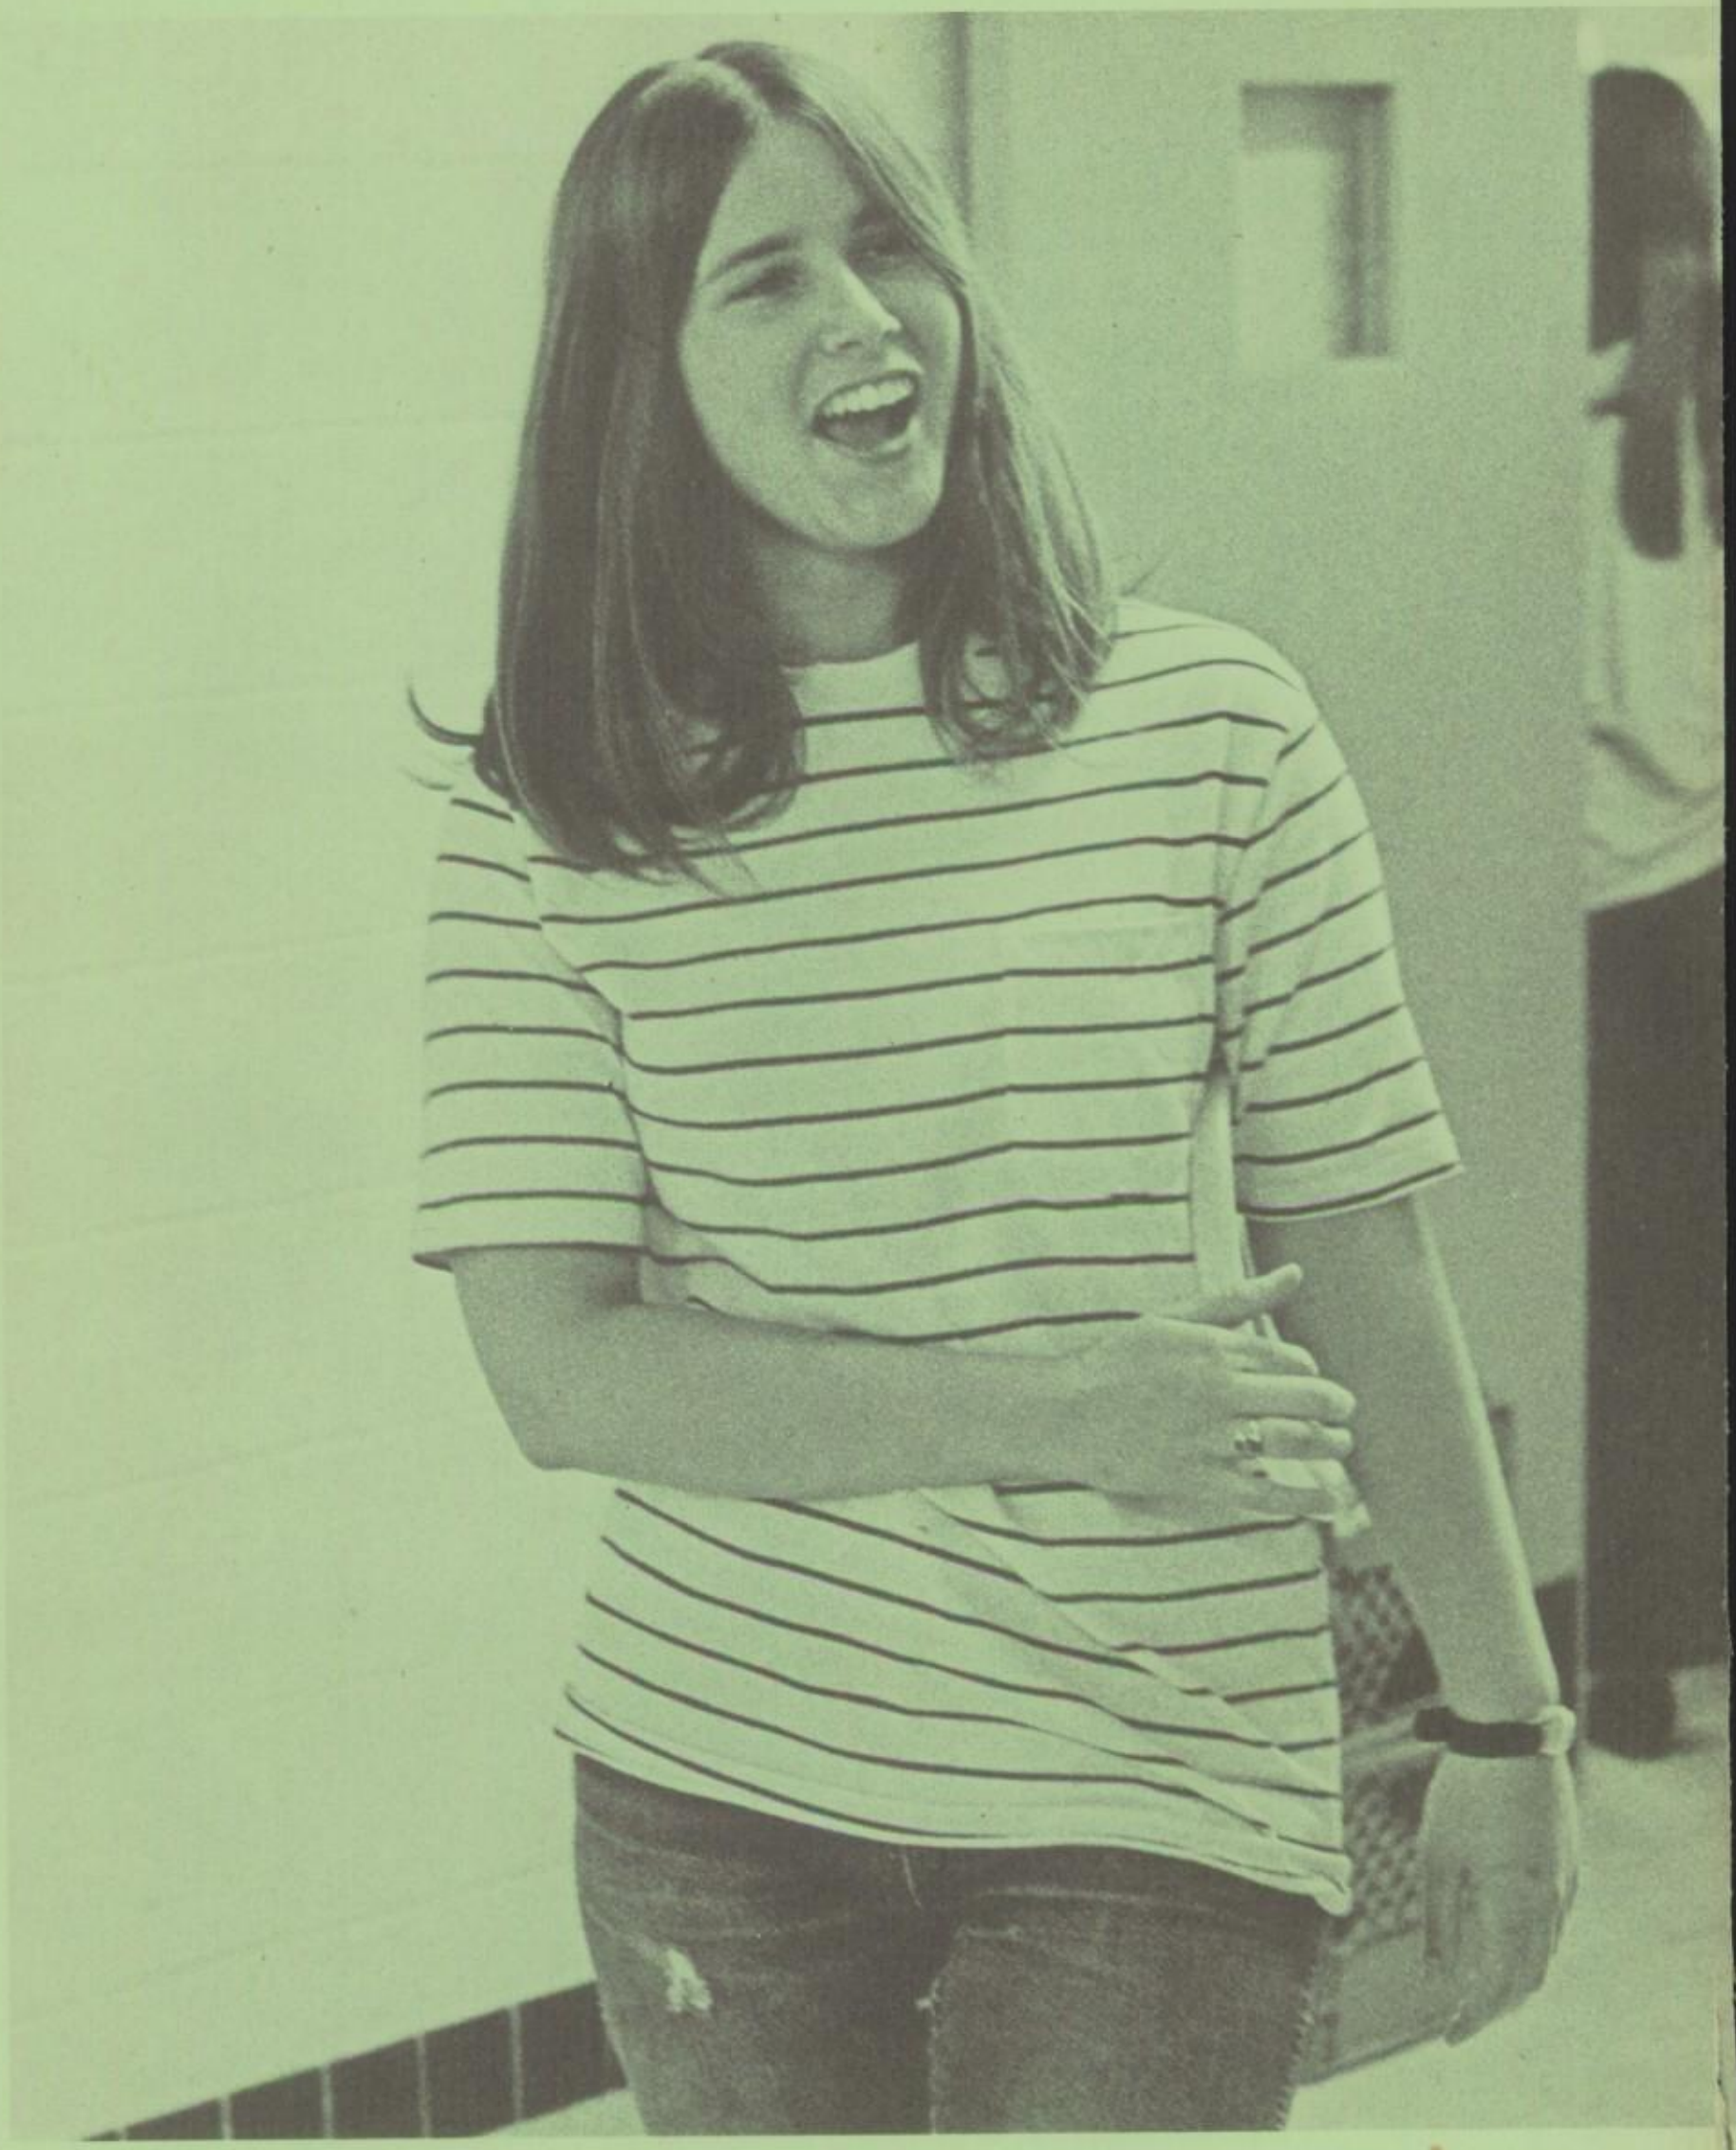
YEARBOOK CLASS



When you're down and troubled
And you need some love and care
And nothin', nothin' is goin' right,
Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night
You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come runnin' to see you again
Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call,
And I'll be there. You've got a friend
If the sky above you
Grows dark and full of clouds
And keep your head together
And call my name out loud,
Soon you'll hear me knockin' at your door.
You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come runnin' to see you again
Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there, yes I will,
Now ain't it good to know
That you've got a friend
When people can be so cold?
They'll hurt you, yes, and desert you
And take your soul if you let them,
Oh, but don't you let them.
You just call out my name,
And you know wherever I am
I'll come runnin' to see you again.
Winter, spring, summer or fall,
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there, yes I will.
You've got a friend,
Ain't it good to know that you've got a friend.

Reflections

We seek, we grope, we rebel. We are sometimes bewildered, and often apathetic. We reflect on the past and prepare ourselves for the future. We are proud, we search for spirit and it comes, in ways that are unique to our school. We are fun-loving, we are always searching for ways to satisfy our need for enjoyment. Our spirit is there, maybe not so open, but with something that is new. We have our own individual spirit. That at times comes together to produce an outstanding performance.

Our SPIRIT produced the Detroit Lions and teachers on donkey-back. SPIRIT made thousands of tissue flowers . . . It produced outstanding floats and it filled the bleachers for a homecoming victory. And it was SPIRIT that tore up the town.

Brighton SPIRIT wears many faces . . . It has 1000 individual expressions . . .

The "1972 REFLECTIONS" is dedicated to that SPIRIT which is uniquely our own.

School Resumes in New Split-Session Schedule

As the doors open once again at Brighton High School, we find many changes in the school's system. Overlooking our crowded halls and sharing of lockers, the most obvious change has been the split sessions. Having to awake every morning at 5:30 a.m. takes a little getting used to, for 5:30 a.m. comes early for faculty as well as for students. A common sight around the school now is to see a teacher catching a few winks in the teacher's lounge, a few blood-shot eyes, and a yawn or two in the classrooms.

As the year progressed, many students have tried to overcome the early morning hours and settle down to a daily routine, even though studies are the farthest thing from their minds at this early hour in the morning.

Mighty Seniors Cheer For a Bulldog Victory

As Seniors cheer for the team during their last year at Brighton High School, a large number still turned out, even though the football team's year was not a big success, and they showed their support by cheering. With the Homecoming victory their efforts were not in vain.

Experience is the best teacher with any football team. A good football player must work at perfecting skills, even if the player is a girl. The girls worked long, hard hours to do just that, and their coaches were right behind them all the way. Everyone who attended the game realized that those long hours didn't go to waste.

The Junior girls, under the leadership of Dan Shosey, and the Seniors girls, under the coaching of Bob Marchi, failed to make a touchdown after the goal lines were moved up to the 20 yard line. As a result, the second annual Junior-Senior Powder Puff ended in a scoreless tie.

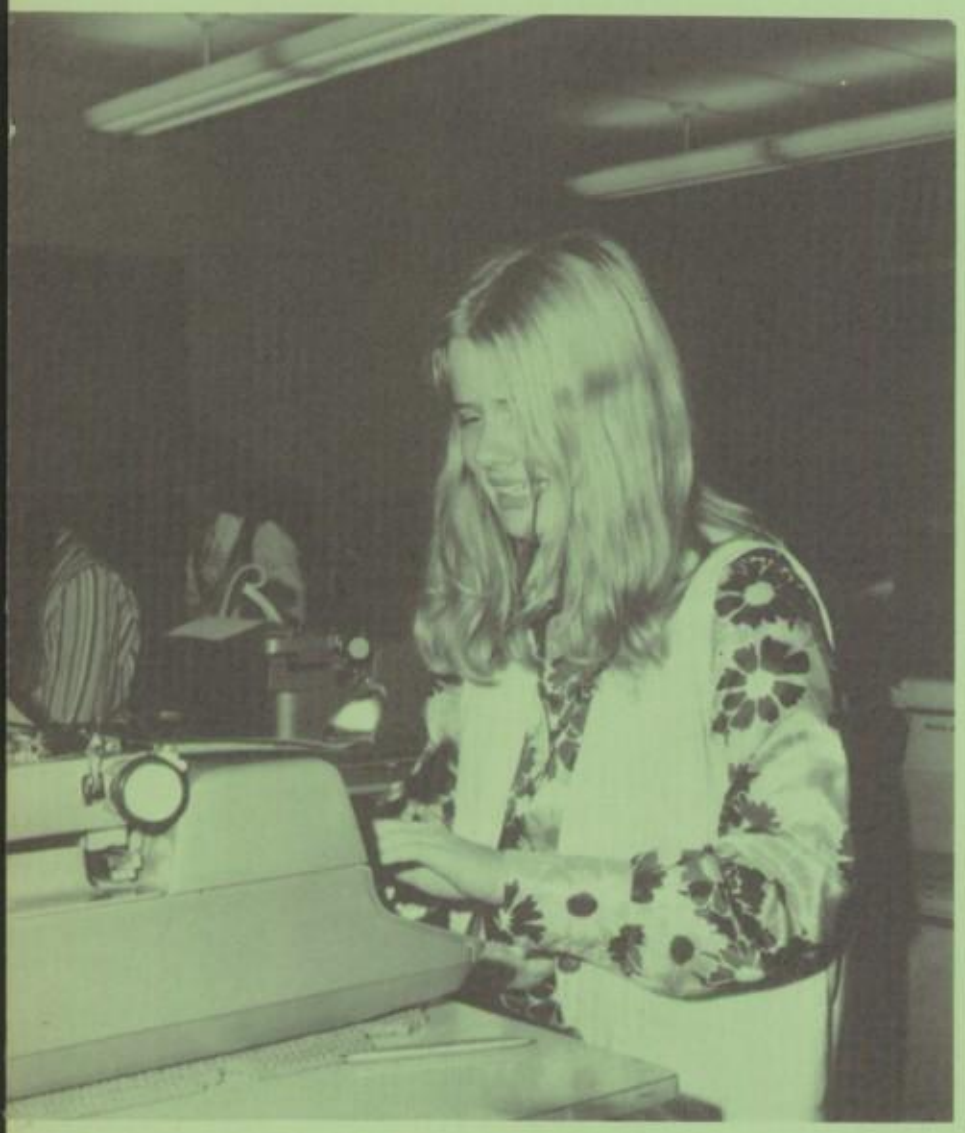
Spirit Combined With Football Equals Victory

The cheering first started in the gym during a pep assembly when the art club contributed a collage to the football team. After the assembly there was a parade where each class entered a float to be later judged during halftime. The parade began at the school, went down Main Street, and ended at the football field.

The chanting still continued with the Clarenceville kick-off and the 1971 Homecoming game was underway.

Halftime festivities consisted of last year's queen, Cam Knisely, crowning this year's queen, Karen Beaubien, and the announcement of the winning float. The Juniors won the contest with their float: "Caution Trojans: Bulldogs are hazardous to your health."

Following the Bulldog victory, there was a dance honoring the queen and her court.



Determination, Practice The Keys to Success

Practice and determination are the main factors in accomplishing anything. Whether it be speed typing against the clock, studying for a class, or learning a new routine for the game, the agony of defeat is hard to take.

Both were well executed this year as can be seen throughout the school. The going can be tough, but the reward of the outcome is a joyous one. Not only in building and strengthening character, but self-satisfaction is important. That is why Brighton High School is becoming a great school for the students, everyone works hard and tries a lot.

Students Relax, Unwind; Focus on Activities

Relaxing moments in class offer time for our students to study. Junior Jim Bogos takes time out of German class to wish peace to our photographer. Jan Greenhalge, senior, is busy at work in the library. Sophomore Julie Vader gives out a cheer in her support to her teammates in a Powder Puff game between the sophomore and freshman girls.

There are also seven young ladies in our Junior and Senior classes known as the Brighton Varsity Cheerleaders. Their way of relaxing is on the night of a Varsity game, when they give it all they've got in support of our teams.

Teachers Are Always Out and on the Move

No matter what hour of the school day, you're bound to run into one of our teachers in the halls. The first thought that runs through your head, is that you're going to get in trouble for being out in the halls. But the teacher usually says hello and continues on his or her way. You'll find that most of the teachers here are very friendly, as so demonstrated by Mr. Pechenick, who takes time from his discussion with Mr. Lawson to give us a little wave.

Next we find Mr. Klopshinske, the band director, is in the process of teaching the marching band a new half-time routine for the next home football game. Then we come to Mr. Schreer, who seems to be right at the end of things.

Football, Basketball, and Band Lead to Enjoyment

Enjoyment. Just what does that word mean? According to Mr. Webster it means: pleasure and gratification. Well, to some people enjoyment means having a picture of the football team's captain. To others it means reporting all of the play by play action of football games to the fans, or practicing hard to learn a halftime show for all the spectators. But there is still another way to experience enjoyment and that way is seeing that other people are laughing and having just as much fun as you are. Here at Brighton High you're bound to find enjoyment of one kind or another.

Recipe: 5 Parts Work To One Part Play

The students at Brighton have learned that there is a time for play as well as work in the classroom. After students do their daily assignments, the teacher usually lets them have the rest of the class period to do what they want, just as long as they keep the noise, "to a minimum."

Mr. Keefe's psychology class is an example. The students decided to see how many they could put together to make a pyramid. As you see they could hold 12 up. This is just a little extra in the daily routine. It makes the hour go so fast and breaks the monotony.

BHS Faculty vs Detroit Lions Is Big Success

Saturday, January 29, was a good night for approximately 1500 persons who attended the benefit basketball game between the Detroit Lions and the Brighton Faculty as they enjoyed the action-packed and often hilarious antics of the people involved.

Almost at any sport gathering you can find a concessionaire and this game was no different. Mr. Colley, our favorite concessionaire, was out selling his goodies to the hungry fans. The female faculty led cheers as their male counterparts battled the Lions on the floor . . .

Charlie Sanders was just about the most popular player at the game. Autograph hounds besieged him at halftime, and even during the game some of the players couldn't keep from expressing their feelings.

Even though Lions #3 added two points to the Detroit's score, they went down in defeat by a score of 85 to 87.

Fairer Sex Brightens The Days at Brighton

Nothing can enliven a dull day like the girls. No one can surpass a girl's imagination and intuition whether it be in studies or activities. This year girls were allowed to participate in another first at Brighton—The Varsity ski-team; their help was appreciated in many ways. No matter how hard things get you can always see smiling faces, whether it be in the ski team competition or facing a rough game of volleyball in gym class. Sports events are a big success in all for girls, too. You can always see them playing basketball, hockey, football, and other main events.

BHS Foreign Students Share Ideas, Cultures

This year Brighton High hosted six foreign exchange students, three from Europe and three from South America.

Petra Schierholz from Hannover, Germany and Per Olsson of Vasteras, Sweden started their senior year in September, while Liga Araium of Catanduva, Brazil and Carlos Pastorini, who is from Montivedeo, Uraguay, joined us at the semester break in January. In March two more came—Agenta Persson from Sweden, and Jose Fernandes from Brazil. It has been really great having them here. While the students have been here, they have exchanged their countries and aspects as compared to those of ours. And they do get to travel all over the country while visiting here.

High School Students Are Filled With Smiles

Pictures of smiling kids aren't hard to find. You don't have to go out to the park, or to the beach, or for a ride out in the country to find them either. No, all of these places are nice, and fun places to go, but to see the faces of smiling kids, you only have to go as far as Brighton High School.

As a whole, the student body of Brighton High is a bunch of good kids. They know how to share their gift of happiness. You can see this on our pages. There isn't a day when you can't go through the halls of our school and see smiling faces of over 800 students.

The Administration At Work, Rest, and Play

Hard work makes a school operate efficiently, but how does this affect the school's personnel? An efficient high school needs an administration staff which knows its job and enjoys it well enough to do it right. It is also important that the students respect and listen to the people known as the administration.

The administration staff doesn't work twenty-four hours a day. You can often find a majority of the staff at most school activities and you'll notice that when they are away from their jobs as principal, assistant principal, etc., they are actually human beings just like you or I.

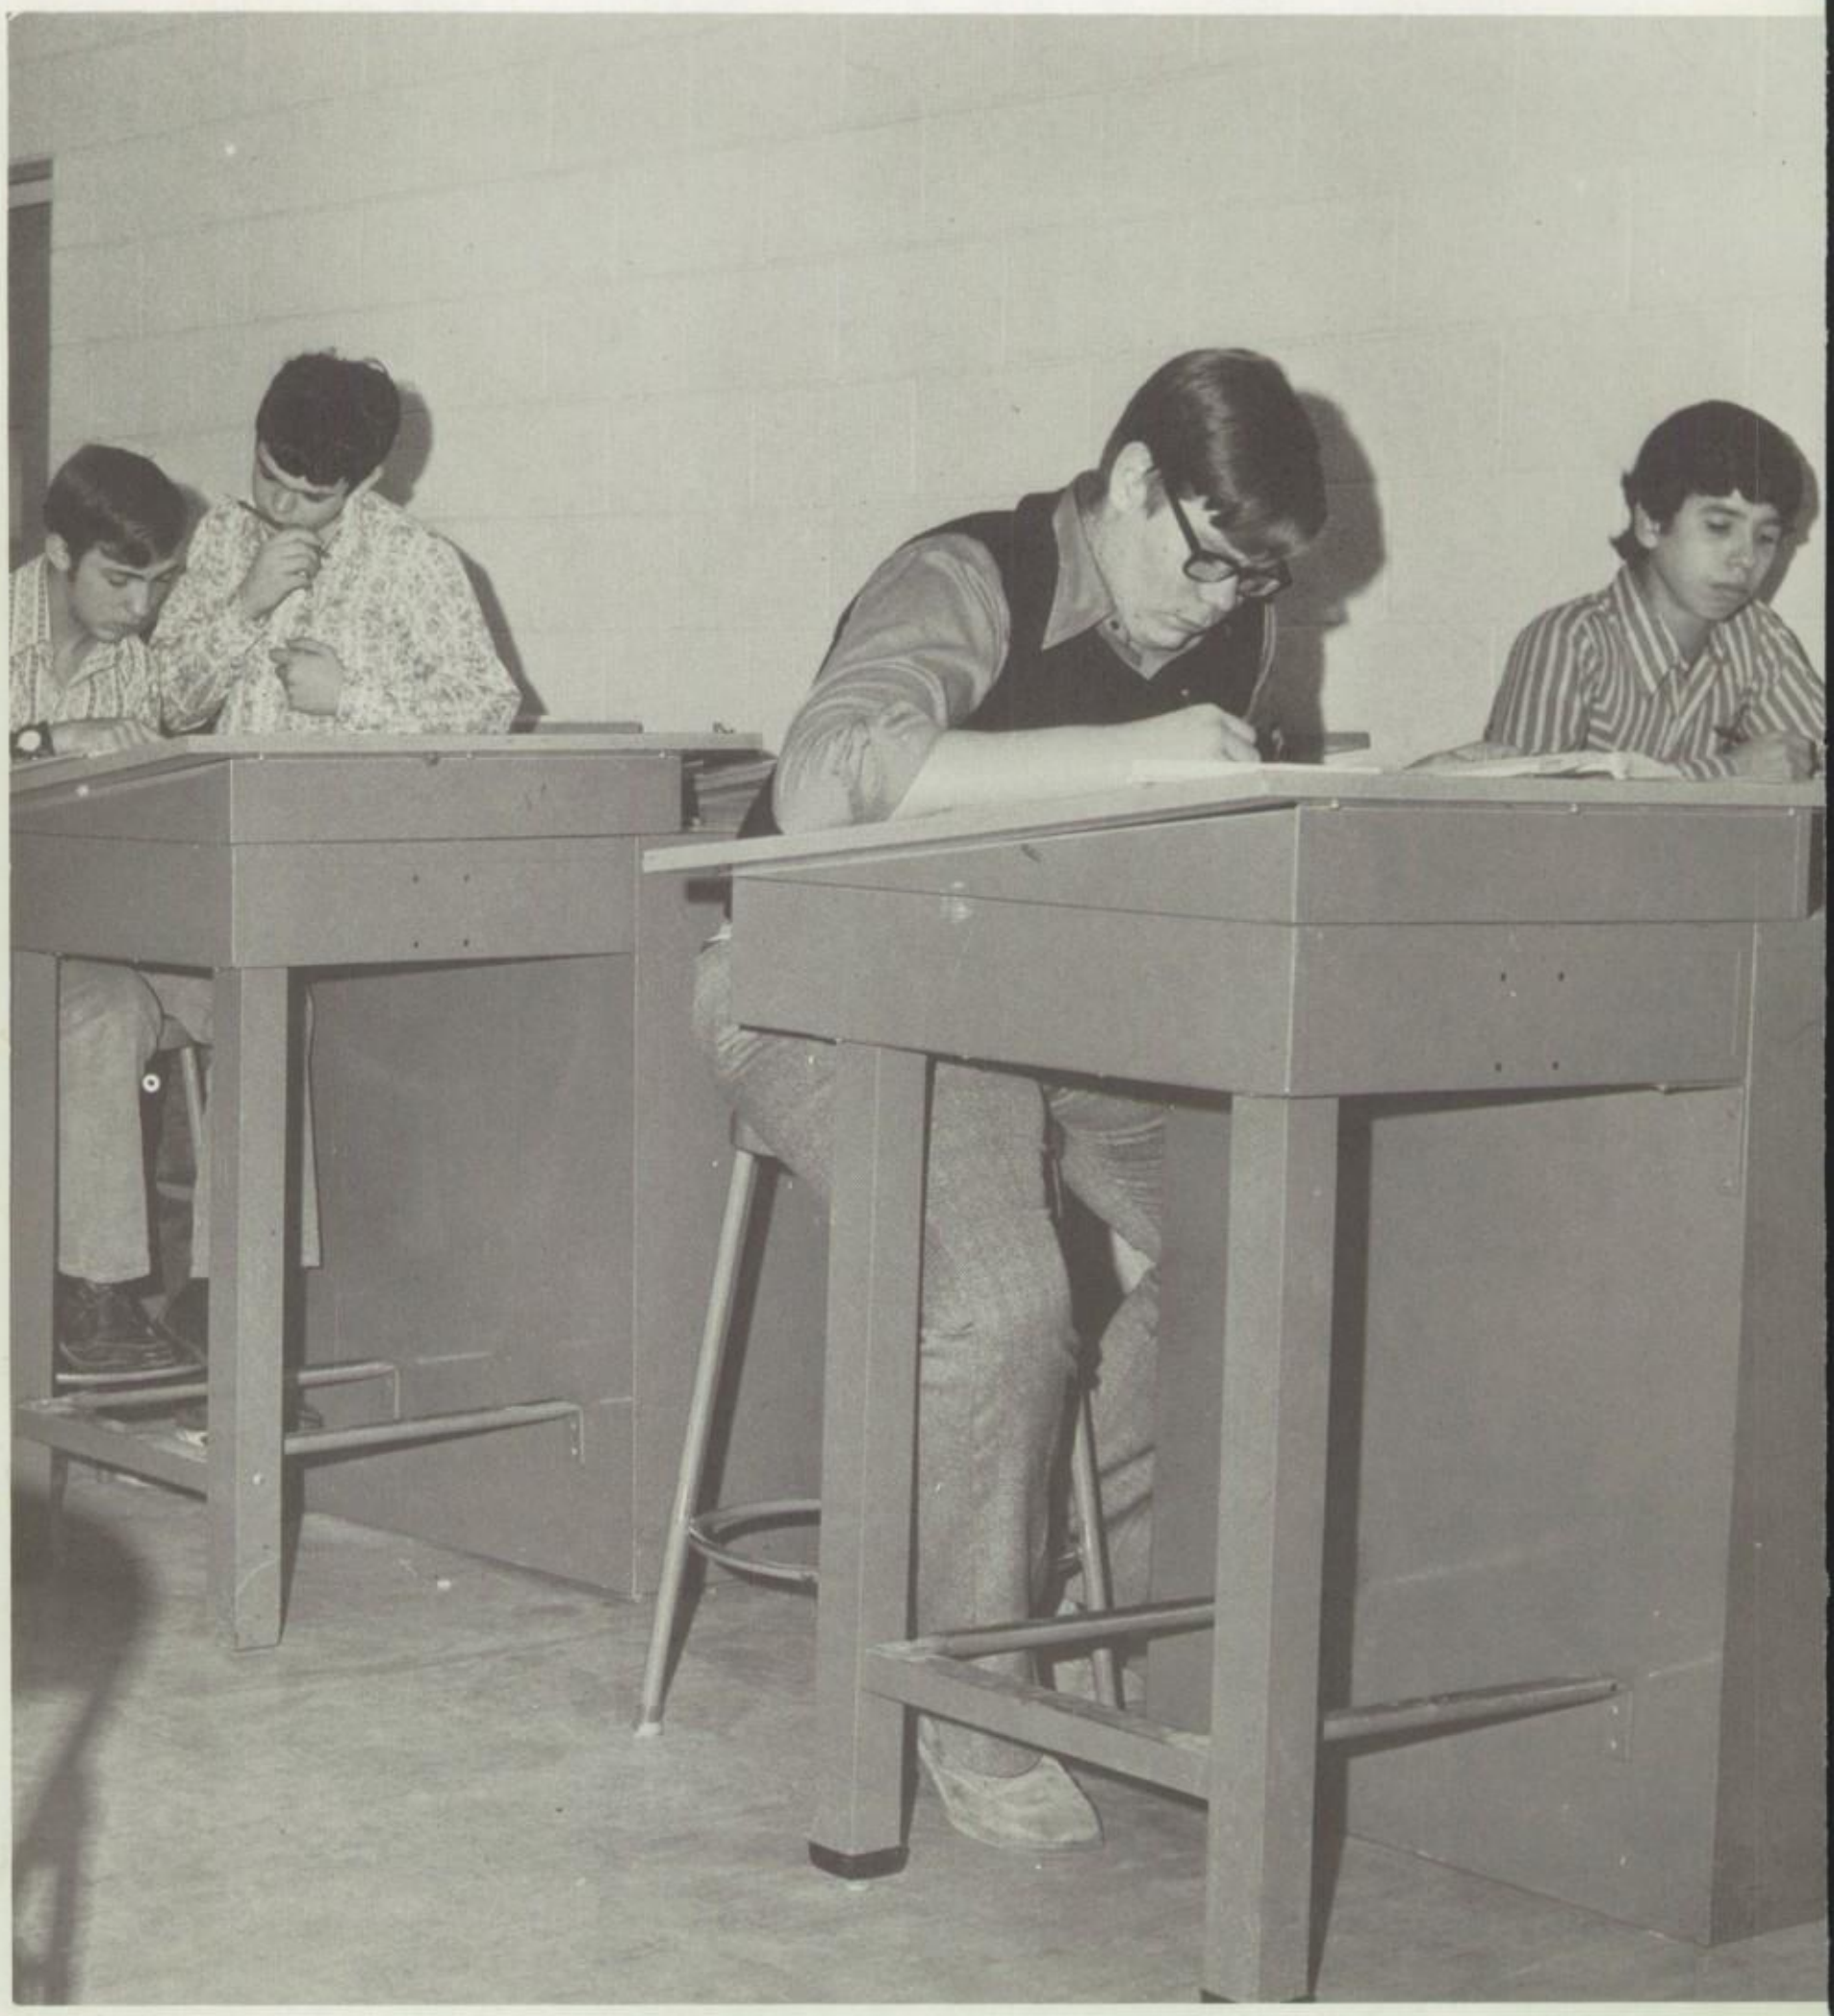
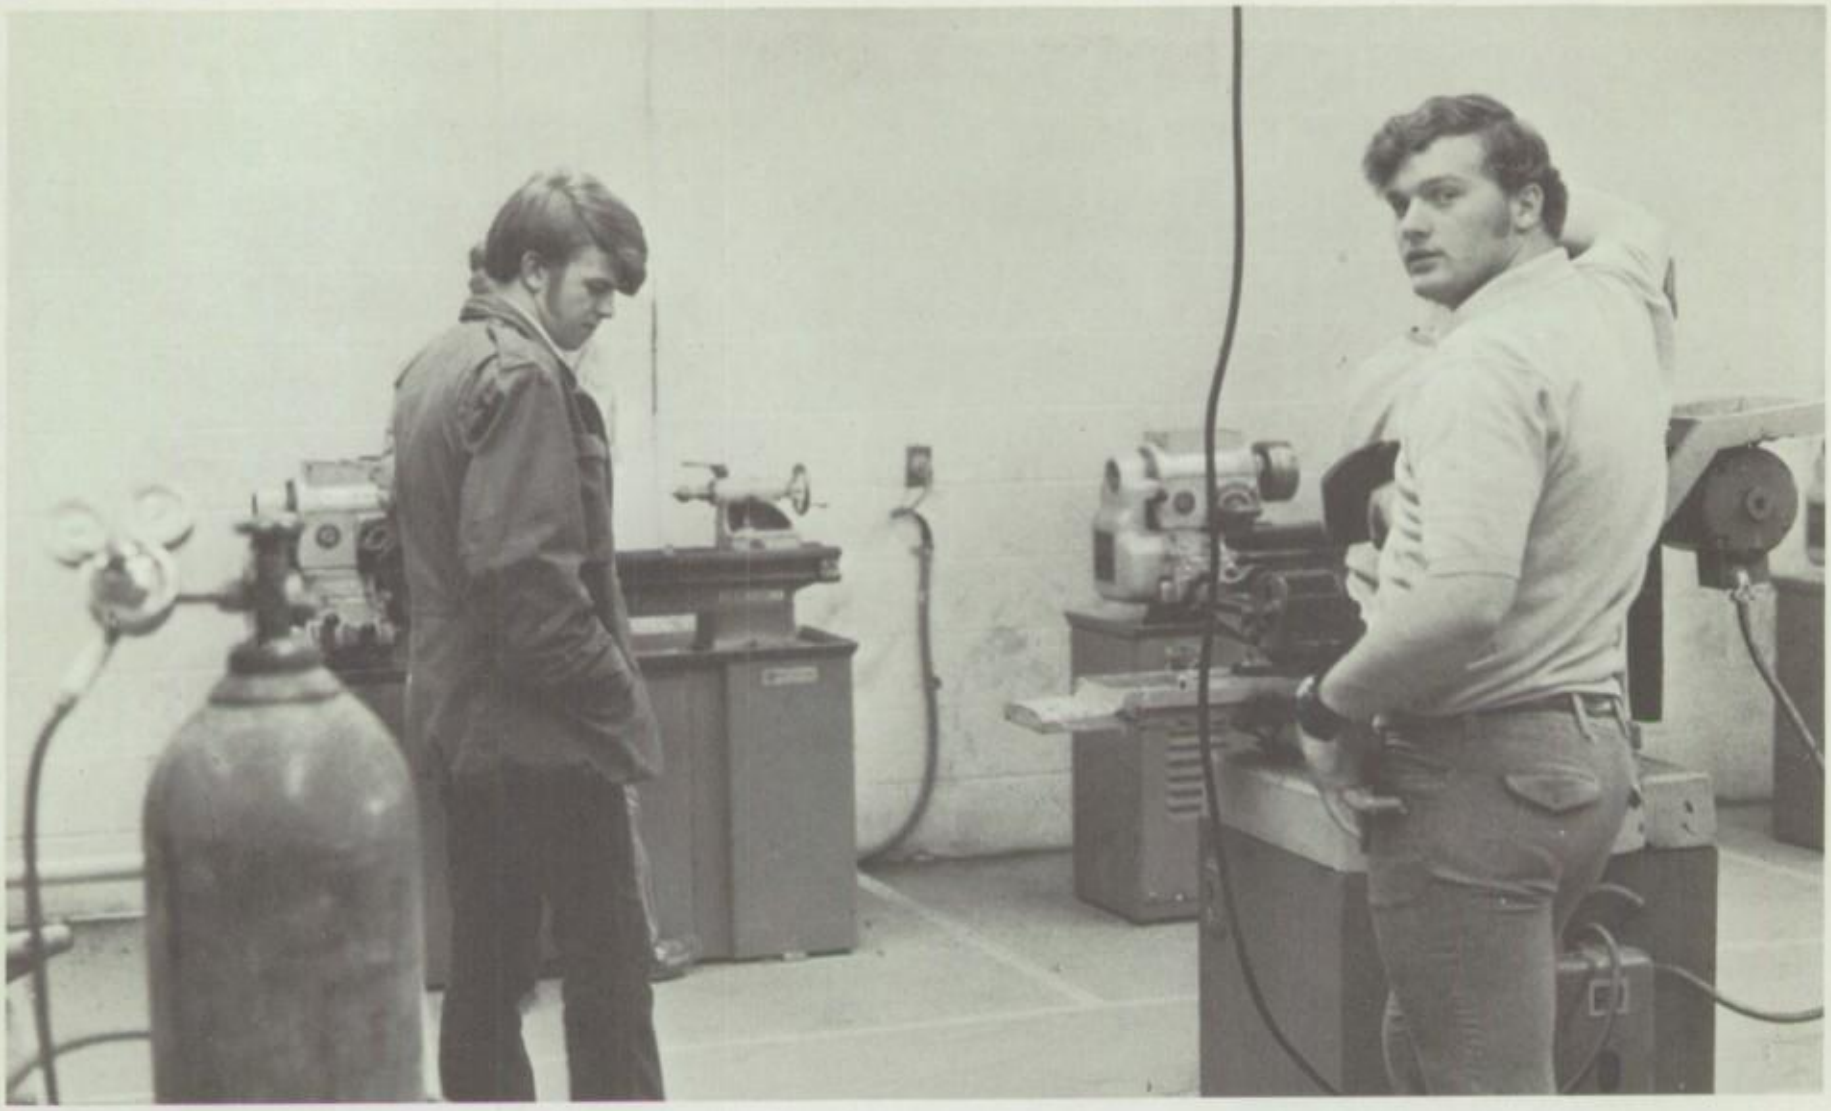
Industrial Arts Help Develop Young Talents



Long hours of persistant concentration highlighted by an occasional brilliant inspiration furnishes the up-coming architect with his final draft. After completing this draft, the aspiring worker can continue by transferring it to blueprints.



Upon entering any one of the numerous work shops, one will be greeted by blaring noises which constantly fill the room. These noises are supplied by the students working with the various up-to-date machines the school furnishes these classes.

The Industrial Arts open the doorway to many enjoyable hobbies and enables the participants in this field of study an opportunity for a very profitable vocation. The students begin these courses by making the simple projects while they develop their talents and skills. Later, they will advance to more difficult ones.

In the various "shops", as the courses are called, students discover the projects they create are not only satisfying to their egos, but also a worthwhile experience. In time, they will use this knowledge in business.

The challenges these young people tackle today will make them mentally alert to responsibilities of tomorrow.

Experiments Are Key To World of Science

Mr. Ted Johnson

Miss Rosemary Lutostanski

With science playing an increasingly important role in our lives today, the Brighton High Science Department offers three high school sciences — biology, chemistry, and physics — to all students. Though only one science course is required to graduate, students with particular interests in science frequently take more than one course.

Another popular course related to science is photography which introduces the student to the world of developing film and printing pictures. Electronics rounds out the science program with studies in circuitry and electricity.

Language Study Aids International Harmony

Universal understanding is promoted in the language department as students become more aware of the cultures of the world. This understanding is essential for people to live together in harmony.

Travel abroad has proven to be an effective tool in helping language students become aware of the distinct difference in cultures surrounding them. This travel has become an important aspect of foreign language classes.

What could be a more delightful remedy for depressive every day blues than the arts?

Humor, inventiveness, contrast — almost every aspect or phase of art—was displayed during the year.

The Band and Choir did their bit, too. They ushered in the Christmas season with a concert that reflected the talent of the groups and the spirit of football games, including the Homecoming game. They presented their annual Christmas and Spring concerts.

English Classes Stress Quality Communications

The ever increasing emphasis placed on the capcaity to communicate one's ideas makes English a notably relevant subject. The English Department stresses three main goals: improving grammar and composition work, broadening reading background, and bettering vocabulary and delivery. Imagination and dedication on the part of both student and teacher make each of these goals possible.

Freshmen are introduced to the information and understanding that English literature carries. Sophomores learn the fundamentals of speech delivery. Juniors discuss the literary value of classic authors and their works, while seniors learn to prepare for college.

Co-op Gives Opportunity To Gain Many Abilities

Future members of the business world obtain a full-fledged boost towards their prospective careers through Cooperative training programs. Co-op provides students with an opportunity to be practical on the job, and getting experience while still in high school.

For those concerned about their future and anxious to prepare themselves, the Business Department offers basic practical skills which will be useful in qualifying for employment. They prepare students for a part-time job today, and for college and the business world tomorrow.

For the student who wants to prepare himself for a specific training in clerical or industrial skills, the vocational instructors must train them in traditional methods while keeping students aware of the everyday clerical and industrial world. Automation promises to revolutionize the work of vocational students. It's the task of high school vocational leaders to make the student aware of the changes, and to qualify him for jobs after school.

Supplementing the required college preparatory courses in Math, Science, English, and Social Studies, the business department offers courses in Typing, Shorthand and bookkeeping to its business students.

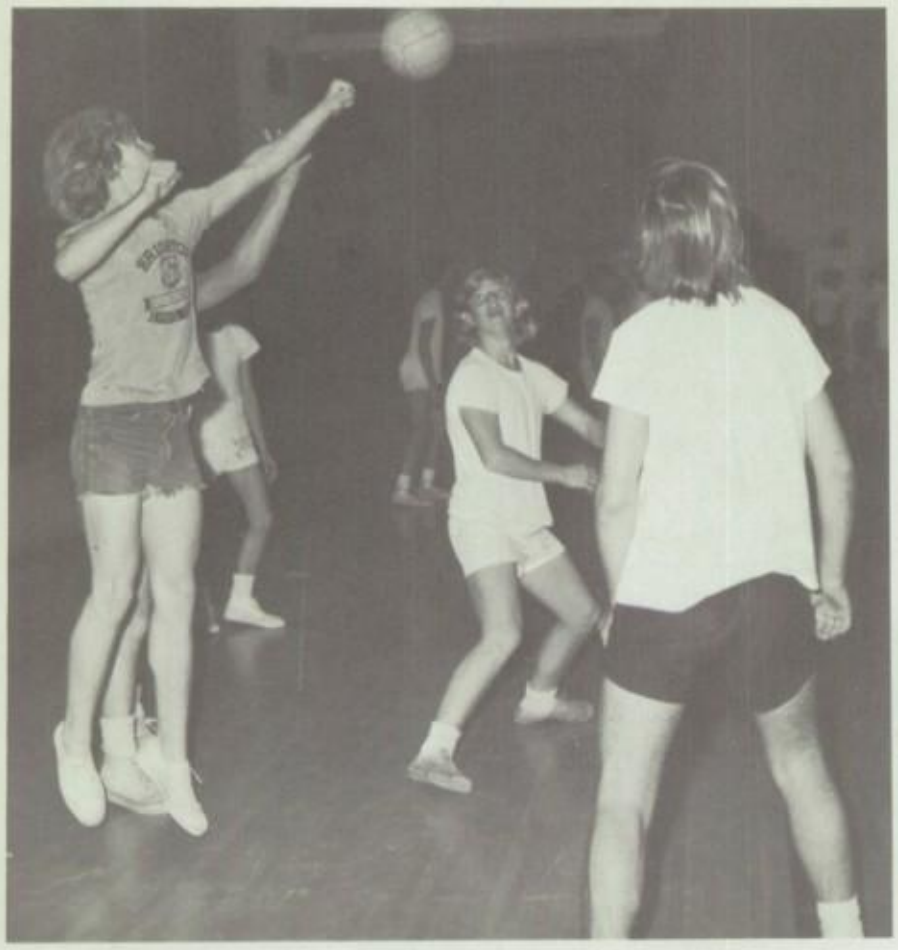
Physical Education Is Sometimes Very Enjoyable



Boys gym class is a lot of fun and full of activities. Here is a good game of volleyball going on.

Physically fit Garth Richardson says: "Around and around and around I go, where I'll stop nobody knows."

To keep the students physically fit and to help turn those with ability into athletes is the goal of the physical education department. Through competition, both inter- and intra-school athletes are molded into good sports with sportsmanship being the prime concern.

There are different sports in which a student can participate in during the school year. In the fall there is soccer; in the winter months basketball, volleyball, and gymnastics are the main sports. In the spring there are badminton, tennis, and baseball to choose from. So if you like any of those sports, gym can be made enjoyable.

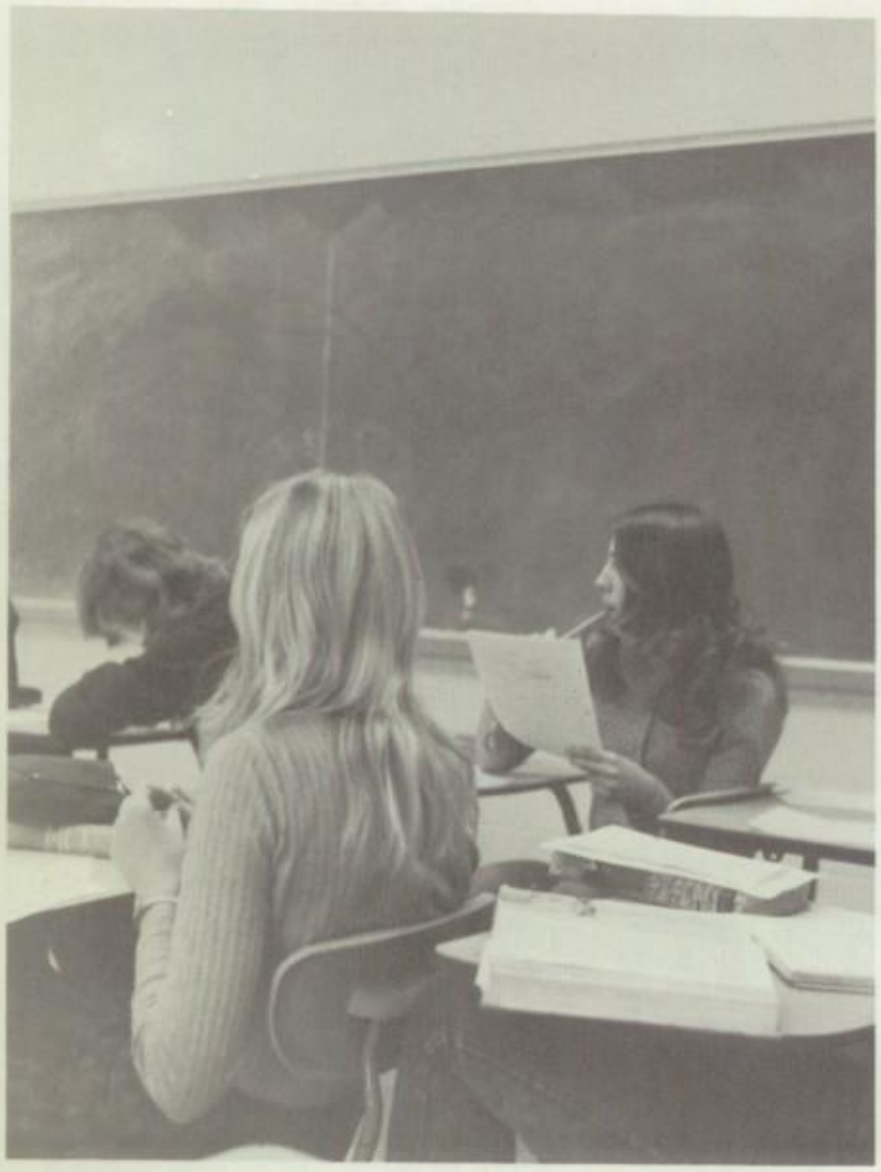
Junior High also enjoy all the fun and activities that come with an hour of gym class every day.

Intricate Problems Make Students Expand Minds

The math department, as in most schools, is the descendant of one of the most ancient educational factors. Mathematics, which has been taught throughout the ages, is successfully continued here at Brighton High.

Under our new system the math department has found new versatility not surpassed by any other school system. With modern math, a new sophistication in problem solving has evolved. The Math Lab and its facilities help counteract and help solve the student's problems.

The sense of organization, of unity, of clarity, are all present in the field of mathematics, whether in proving a plane geometry theorem or solving a problem in calculus. To provide these students with the knowledge they seek, Brighton High's math department offers an excellent choice of courses that includes Algebra I and plane geometry, the subjects required for graduation, as well as Algebra II, Trigonometry, and Solid Geometry.



Debbie Felder stops to ponder one of the many intricate and thought provoking problems in Algebra II.

New Coaches Help on Bulldog's Grid Record

Homecoming was the bright spot of the Bulldog's season as they downed Clarenceville, 15-6, but the season record of 1 win, 6 losses, and 1 tie doesn't sound too good, even though it has been four years since the Bulldog's have had this good of a record. The team hadn't won a game since 1969.

The Bulldog's had four men on the All Livingston County Team. They were Bob McKeon for center, Dennis Horal for defensive back, Bob Hines for tackle, and Duane Cornell for defensive linebacker. This was pretty good even though the team's season wasn't so good compared with the other teams in the county.

Sophomore Chuck Wagner catches touchdown pass for the Bulldog's lone score of the night against Temperence Bedford.

Dave Briggs leads the way for running back Jim Wood as he heads for a big gain against the Clarenceville Trojans.

Junior Varsity Try Harder but Only Win Two

Brighton Junior Varsity had a fair season with 2 wins and 3 losses. They started the year off with an 18-12 win over South Lyon. It was a very exciting game to the end where Brighton got two touchdowns in the last minute.

In the other win they beat Northville 12-6. This game was a much easier game to win than the South Lyon game in that Brighton did everything right and led through most of the game. Brighton also led in the statistics.

By far the most outstanding player on the squad was Chuck Wagner, who half way through the year went up to Varsity where he did an outstanding job.

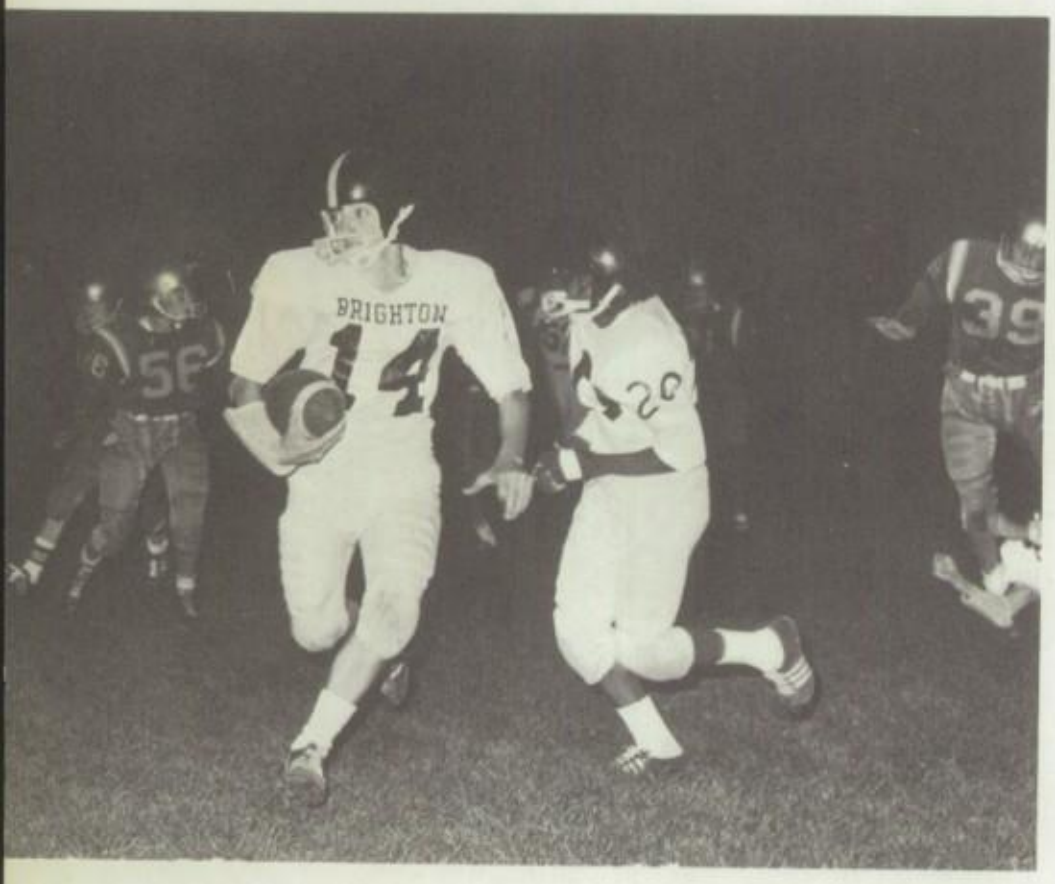
A Big Year of Success Brings Hope for Future

This year's Freshman Football team came through with an impressive year. Led by David LewAllen at quarterback they posted a record of three wins and one loss. This gives the Junior Varsity coaches something to look forward to in the upcoming season.

During the off season, team members will be working out on the weights to build up a strong front line.

As Dan Stine looks for daylight in the game against Fowlerville, the Fowlerville players seek pursuit.



On the sidelines Coach Williams explains what strategy to use with the freshman players on their home field.

The Freshmen received a big setback when their top player, David LewAllen, was put up to the JV and Varsity teams.

Coach Al Burnett Has Heartbreaking First Year

The Brighton Varsity Basketball team, coached by new head coach Allen Burnett, had a heartbreaking season this year only managing to win two games over Dexter and Utica Eisenhower. Brighton had a number of close contests only losing by a few points and went into overtime in the game with Howell. Throughout the year, the orange and black had a number of standouts. Senior Steve Bandkau took most points scored honors and was also chosen on the All Livingston County Team, while Senior Jim Wood brought down the most rebounds for the team.

Coming back to help the team next year will be Juniors Hugh Jones, Mike Sheldon, Mike Wildman, and Freshman Dave LewAllen, who came up to help the team near the year's end.

Steve Bandkau shot a 78 and received Medalist honors.

This year's wrestling team kept up its pattern of winning seasons. Ever since coach James Peterson came to Brighton, Brighton has had a winning season every year. Plus the winning seasons, Brighton has had a number of wrestlers advance to the Regional Tournaments and then to the State Finals. This year's team was weak because of a lot of graduating seniors of last year. Jim Gaunt, Mike Allen, and Don Armstrong advanced to the Regionals this year, and Jim Gaunt went on to compete in the State Finals, but failed to place.

Competitive Skiing New Sport for Brighton High

Brighton added another varsity sport this year with slalom skiing. Coached by Brian Martin, the Brighton skiers started out the season with a loss to Southfield here at Mt. Brighton, but they came strong in their next meet only losing to Waterford Township by 9.2 seconds. Rick Noeker took a first over all in this meet.

The next meet took the Brighton skiers to East Lansing in which they also lost. To end the season Brighton stayed on their home course at Mt. Brighton. Sophomore Karen Anderson took a 10th place medal in the Girls Slalom in the Regionals. Rick Noeker took 15th place in the Boys Giant Slalom that same afternoon. Even though the record for the team was not a winning one, it was their first year and the future of the sport looks good.

Dennis Horal's team took second place in regular play, and third place was taken by Chuck Hundley's team. Finishing in fourth was Ron Wilson's team.

Cheerleaders Work To Arouse School Spirit

With incessant "go-go's" and a steady "rah-rah", the girls attempt to raise the spirit of the crowd and lift the morale of the football and basketball teams at all the games. The student body chose Karen Beaubien to reign as their 1917 Homecoming Queen. She was escorted to the game and the dance by Student Council President Peter Wenzel. During the halftime ceremonies the 1970 Homecoming Queen Cam Knisely crowned Karen.

Homecoming festivities got under way with a rousing pep assembly at which the students' spirit was audibly evident. The Juniors displayed their enthusiasm by winning their third pep bottle.

The Seniors selected Barbara Bogos to represent their class and she was escorted by Lenard DiLaura. Diane Panek was chosen as attendant by the Junior class and James Thesier was her escort. Stuart Bazley escorted Sophomore attendant Elizabeth Parker. The Freshmen selected Carol Collett as their attendant and David Lew Allen was her escort.

The Brighton Bulldogs were eager for a victory over the Clarenceville Trojans. The Bulldogs led at halftime with the score of 15-0. They clinched their remarkable victory with the scoreboard reading 15-6.

Refreshments were served throughout the evening to the alumni and guests. As the final strains of music were heard, everyone tucked away memories of the sights and sounds of that unforgettable Homecoming.

Outstanding Floats Help Lead the Way to Victory

Homecoming day began with the traditional float parade from the High School to the football field. The queen and senior attendant led the procession followed by the football players, cheerleaders, attendants, and floats. The sunny weather matched the students spirit as they accompanied their floats along the way.

At halftime with the Bulldogs leading, the floats were brought on the field. The Juniors won the float contest with their terrific float "Caution Trojans: Bulldogs are Hazardous to your Health." The Seniors worked long and hard, but to no avail on their float "Kill 'Em Dead." The Sophomore float was titled "Bulldogs Have A Better Idea." The Freshman outdid themselves as newcomers to the high school with their float "They Tried But They Couldn't Do It."

Brighton Actors Relive Don Quixote on Stage

A small segment of the Middle Ages was recaptured as "The Wonderful Adventures of Don Quixote" were brought to life by Brighton actors in March. Don Quixote, the legendary creation of Cervantes, was the central character in the play by Conrad Seiler. The play concerned the hilarious adventures that the eccentric Don Quixote managed to involve himself in. On the stage, arranged to resemble a theater-in-the-round, Pete Wenzel starred in the title role. Kerry Hitchings co-starred as the humorous Sancho Panza, who accompanied Don Quixote on his journeys.

A mere country girl stands in wonder as the enraptured Don Quixote kneels in adoration before her.

Kris Bauchat, as Teresa, gives her husband, Sancho Panza, consent to become Don Quixote's compatriot.

Rocinante, Don Quixote's shabby swayback horse, is portrayed by Julie Vader and Sue Bubrowski.

Don Quixote duels with Dr. Carrasco whom he believes to be a white knight with intentions of murder.

Spring Musical Reveals Promising New Talent

Mrs. Dolly Gallagher Levi graced the Brighton stage as she brought her matchmaking abilities from New York City last May. Cheri Chenoweth starred in the production based on the original play by Thornton Wilder. The company rehearsed for three months under the direction of Mrs. Rose.

The musical ran for two nights and Dolly acquainted herself with everyone as the bustling matron who always "put her hand in" all romantic affairs. She managed to use her matchmaking abilities on everyone, including herself and Horace Vandergelder, portrayed by Bob Ruffins. The supporting cast, composed of students from grades 9 through 12, displayed promising talents.

Madrigals Make Their Debut at Christmastime

A new sound was given to the music lovers of Brighton with the creation of the Madrigals. It was created by Mr. Matthew Keefe, who has devoted much of his time to improving the music department.

Before being chosen, each of the nineteen members underwent a difficult audition. They faithfully practiced each Tuesday during a two hour session.

The Madrigals caroled for a variety of audiences during the Christmas season. They joined the Choir in their traditional Christmas Concert while they sang "I'll Be Home for Christmas" and "Christmas Day."

The Madrigals attended the Solo and Ensemble Festival in Lansing on February 5 where they received a high score. The annual Spring Concert was enhanced by their final performance of the school year.

Rebirth of the Varsity Club Unifies Athletics

The Brighton Varsity Club was reborn this year as a result of the concerned efforts of some zealous members. Their new unity was evident as they partook in many profitable and worthwhile activities. With the conscientious help of the club's adviser, Mr. Alan Burnett, they sponsored the Donkey Basketball Game which brought them over five hundred dollars in profits.

The organization contains 37 members who participate in the varied sports of basketball, football, wrestling, baseball, track, golf, cross country, and skiing.

Council Undergoes New Changes for Students

This year proved to be a problem in plotting and planning Student Council activities. With split-sessions came the questions like "Will the Junior High be part of the Student Council?" Many members thought they should be on their own, while others expressed their opinions that they should be included. Some of the conflicting arguments were that they would not be in our school at our time and not aware of the problems arising. On the pro side some felt they would add in helping to solve problems caused by the split-sessions.

The deciding factor was Homecoming. It was decided that the Ninth Grade would be included in the festivities. They later proved their worth in helping pick the curriculum for next year and expressing valid opinions about things in, on, and going around Brighton High School.

A major accomplishment for Council this year was a fifteen minute break during the morning to make up for the long span of going without food.

Mr. Petrie Brings New Format to Yearbook

The Yearbook staff acquired a valuable asset this year in the form of Mr. Richard Petrie. As the new adviser, he has brought many fresh ideas for the production of yearbooks. New techniques were also used as the staff toiled over their respective sections carrying out the book's theme "Reflections."

As deadlines approached, pictures were pasted down, copy was written, and pages were submitted for final evaluation before being mailed to the printer.

Mr. Petrie contributes some enlightening advice to Activities members Denise Kort, Mary Lou Bitten, and Janet Lawhead.

School Paper Acquires New Make-up and Title

Great versatility, determined efforts, and much persistance are the ingredients that go into each edition of the B. H. S. Times, Brighton High School's student paper.

All articles for the succeeding issues are decided upon and then assigned to reporters. Each of the four departments, Editorial, Feature, News, and Sports, are supervised by an editor. Layouts are drawn by these editors and stories are then written to fit the designated spaces. Headlines are also created to meet specified requirements in order to keep the page balanced. A change was made this year from a two column to a three column page.

Every last Friday, the student body receives the B. H. S. Times through the fifth hour class.

Debate and Forensics Show Speech Abilities

The art of public speaking is something that can be had only by countless hours of training, dedication, and direction. The Forensics Team and the Debate Team attempt to better their speaking abilities by working with each other on various speeches and scripts.

There are thirty members who comprise the nine divisions of Forensics. They pursue such diverse activities as Radio Broadcasting, storytelling, and oratorical speeches.

During the course of the year, the Debate Team attended tournaments and the State Districts where they scored well.

Debate Club member Kim Antieau stands at the podium as she diligently rehearses her speech.

Marie Fitzgerald, Barbara Schutz, and Kim Antieau give each other last-minute advice before attending their Debate Meet.

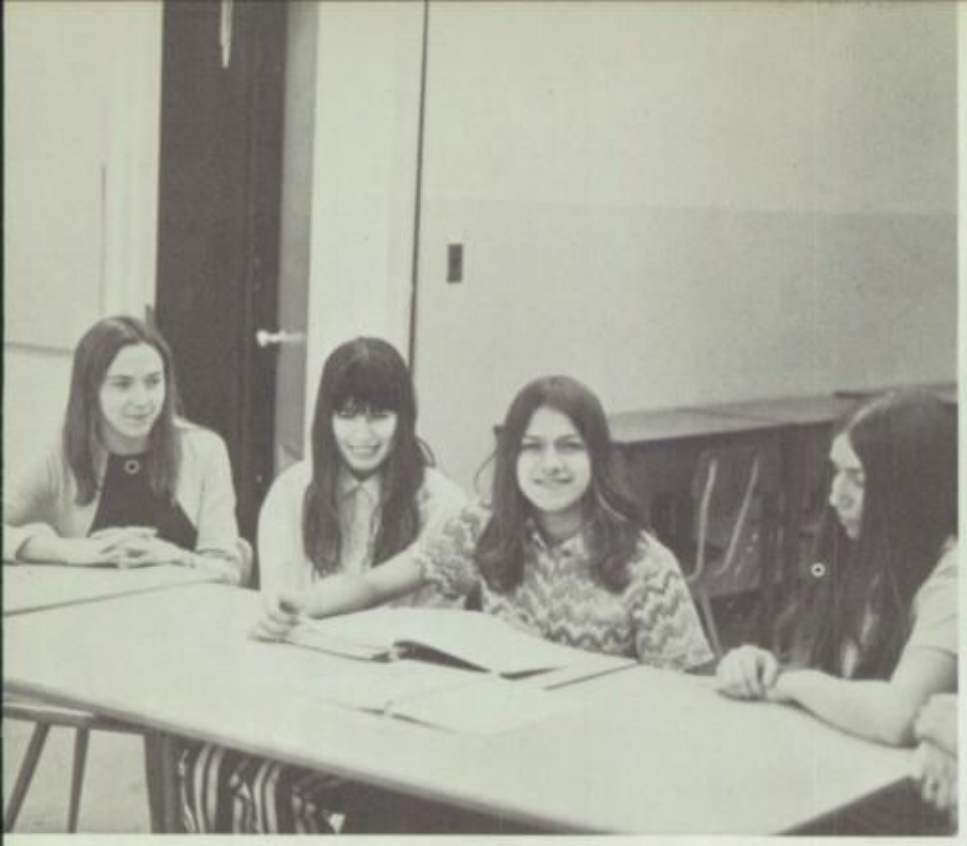
FHA and FTA Strive To Improve Community

Many of the high goals that FHA and FTA members set for themselves were achieved this year under the direction of Mrs. Gilmour and Mr. Hardy, respective advisers.

The ten FHA members assisted in the Blood Bank Drive, sent Valentines, and sponsored a Cookbook Drive. These activities helped to fulfill their goals for personal enrichment in the area of home management.

The FTA members assisted in the education of young Brighton pupils as they aided teachers throughout the area.



Mrs. Gilmour offers suggestions to FHA members as they prepare their strategy for the Cookbook Drive.

FTA members and Adviser Mr. Hardy discuss plans for their tutoring excursions to West, Miller, and Hawkins Schools.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1972

Would like to thank class advisors, the administration, faculty, and underclassmen for helping make this year's graduating class the most outstanding and successful ever to come from Brighton High School.

We also wish much success to the upcoming classes.

Reflections

As the year comes to a close, we begin to reflect upon the past. We think about the senior class leaving, and the seniors think about all of the events that they have experienced within the past four years. Now it is over, one of the most memorable periods in your life and now you must go out and leave this place.

It has been said many times "I can't wait until I get out of here." But when the time comes, for a second, a very short second, it is regretted.

We have tried to capture and show the year and how it progressed. This year we employed new techniques in the book, such as, more candids, copy on every page (Oh my god, Copy) that no one will read anyway, and a very helpful and Tolerant adviser, Mr. Richard Petrie.

To everyone on the staff, remember doughnuts, photographers, Pinky, Doughnuts, Farlene (Darlene Marlene), Funyons, Fatso, Bob's Hall's Mento-Lyptus, Endless unmeetable deadlines, and Doughnuts.

I would like to thank everyone for their co-operation, especially the graduating seniors.

A special thanks goes to Mr. Petrie for putting up with us and also a great thanks to Michael Waite, because without him this book would not be possible.

By reflecting on the past, but not dwelling on it, we prepare ourselves for the future.
